Decline

Students who qualify for the summer program have been identified as migrant students by the MEP office.
Children required to attend a district summer school program may not qualify to attend this program.

Parent Responsibilities:

- Accept services as outlined by signing parent contract.
- Allow a teacher to provide services to eligible children.
- Ensure that the student regularly attends the summer school program.
- Notify the teacher when family is leaving and child will no longer attend the summer program.

District Responsibilities:

- Provide a certified teacher who will work with the student each day.
- Ensure the teacher sends home information about the program to keep the parent informed of the content the student is learning.
